The following categories of candidates may apply for the admissions test:

- Italian or EU nationals holding an Italian 5-year high school diploma or equivalent qualification;
- Italian or EU nationals holding a qualification equivalent to the Italian high school diploma obtained on completion of a period of schooling of no less than 12 years;
- non-EU nationals upon presentation of an application for admission in accordance with provisions in force regarding the entry, stay and enrolment of foreign/international students, as well as an evaluation of documentation and of each specific situation;
- Italian citizens attending the fourth year of an Italian high school – with the exception of the Bachelor's degree course in Interpreting and Communication, for which attendance in at least the fifth year is compulsory;
- Italian citizens attending the third or fourth year of Italian 4-year secondary education courses, with the exception of the Bachelor's degree course in Interpreting and Communication, for which attendance in at least the fourth and final year of the aforementioned courses is compulsory;
- Italian citizens attending the fifth year of an Italian high school;
- EU or non-EU nationals attending the final year in a high school in their home country or a Foundation Year (a preparatory course for international students who have not completed a 12-year period of schooling), subsequent to evaluation of documentation and of each specific situation.

Applicants for the admissions test for the Bachelor's degree course in Corporate Communication and Public Relations must have a knowledge of English equivalent to at least level B2 in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Applicants who are not in possession of the required language certification (or with certification that is no longer valid) must take a specific Language Assessment Test. Applicants who have completed their entire high school studies attending English-speaking schools in Italy or abroad may be exempt from the assessment test.

Admission to the degree course in Interpreting and Communication requires at least a basic knowledge of English (at least level A2 in the CEFR), while a "beginner" level is admissible for all other languages of study. As a result, students with a "beginner" level of English in both the written and oral tests cannot be admitted to the degree course in Interpreting and Communication.
